Mental Health Ambassador Program Accepting Applicants

NC State Mental Health Ambassadors (MHAs) are a group of undergrads and graduate students with a passion for mental health awareness and wellness education. MHAs will be trained to assist in the development of various topics for classroom presentations, campus partners, and community events to decrease the stigma around mental health, help seeking, and self care. Click below for more information.

Let's Room Together

Let's Room Together is the brainchild of two MBA students who sought to improve the graduate school experience. It represents the first specialized online community built to help graduate students find roommates, interact socially, and navigate the annoying challenges of graduate school, through online tools & curated research.

Any current student interested in using the site can sign-up using their NC State email, create a profile, and start searching securely at Let's Room Together. For any questions or suggestions, please feel free to contact our team.

Block grants available for interdepartmental events

GSA Block Grants are awarded to support academic activities among graduate students across academic departments at NC State University. The full amount of funding will be awarded to those organizations that demonstrate inter-departmental cooperation and possess great academic value. For eligibility requirements, instructions, and application, please visit the GSA finance webpage.
